NAVIRE: THE INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY IN YUCATAN

A new land development with full urbanization is making waves in Yucatan's real estate market. Located in the beautiful Santa Clara port, Navire is a unique opportunity to invest in land at pre-sale prices.

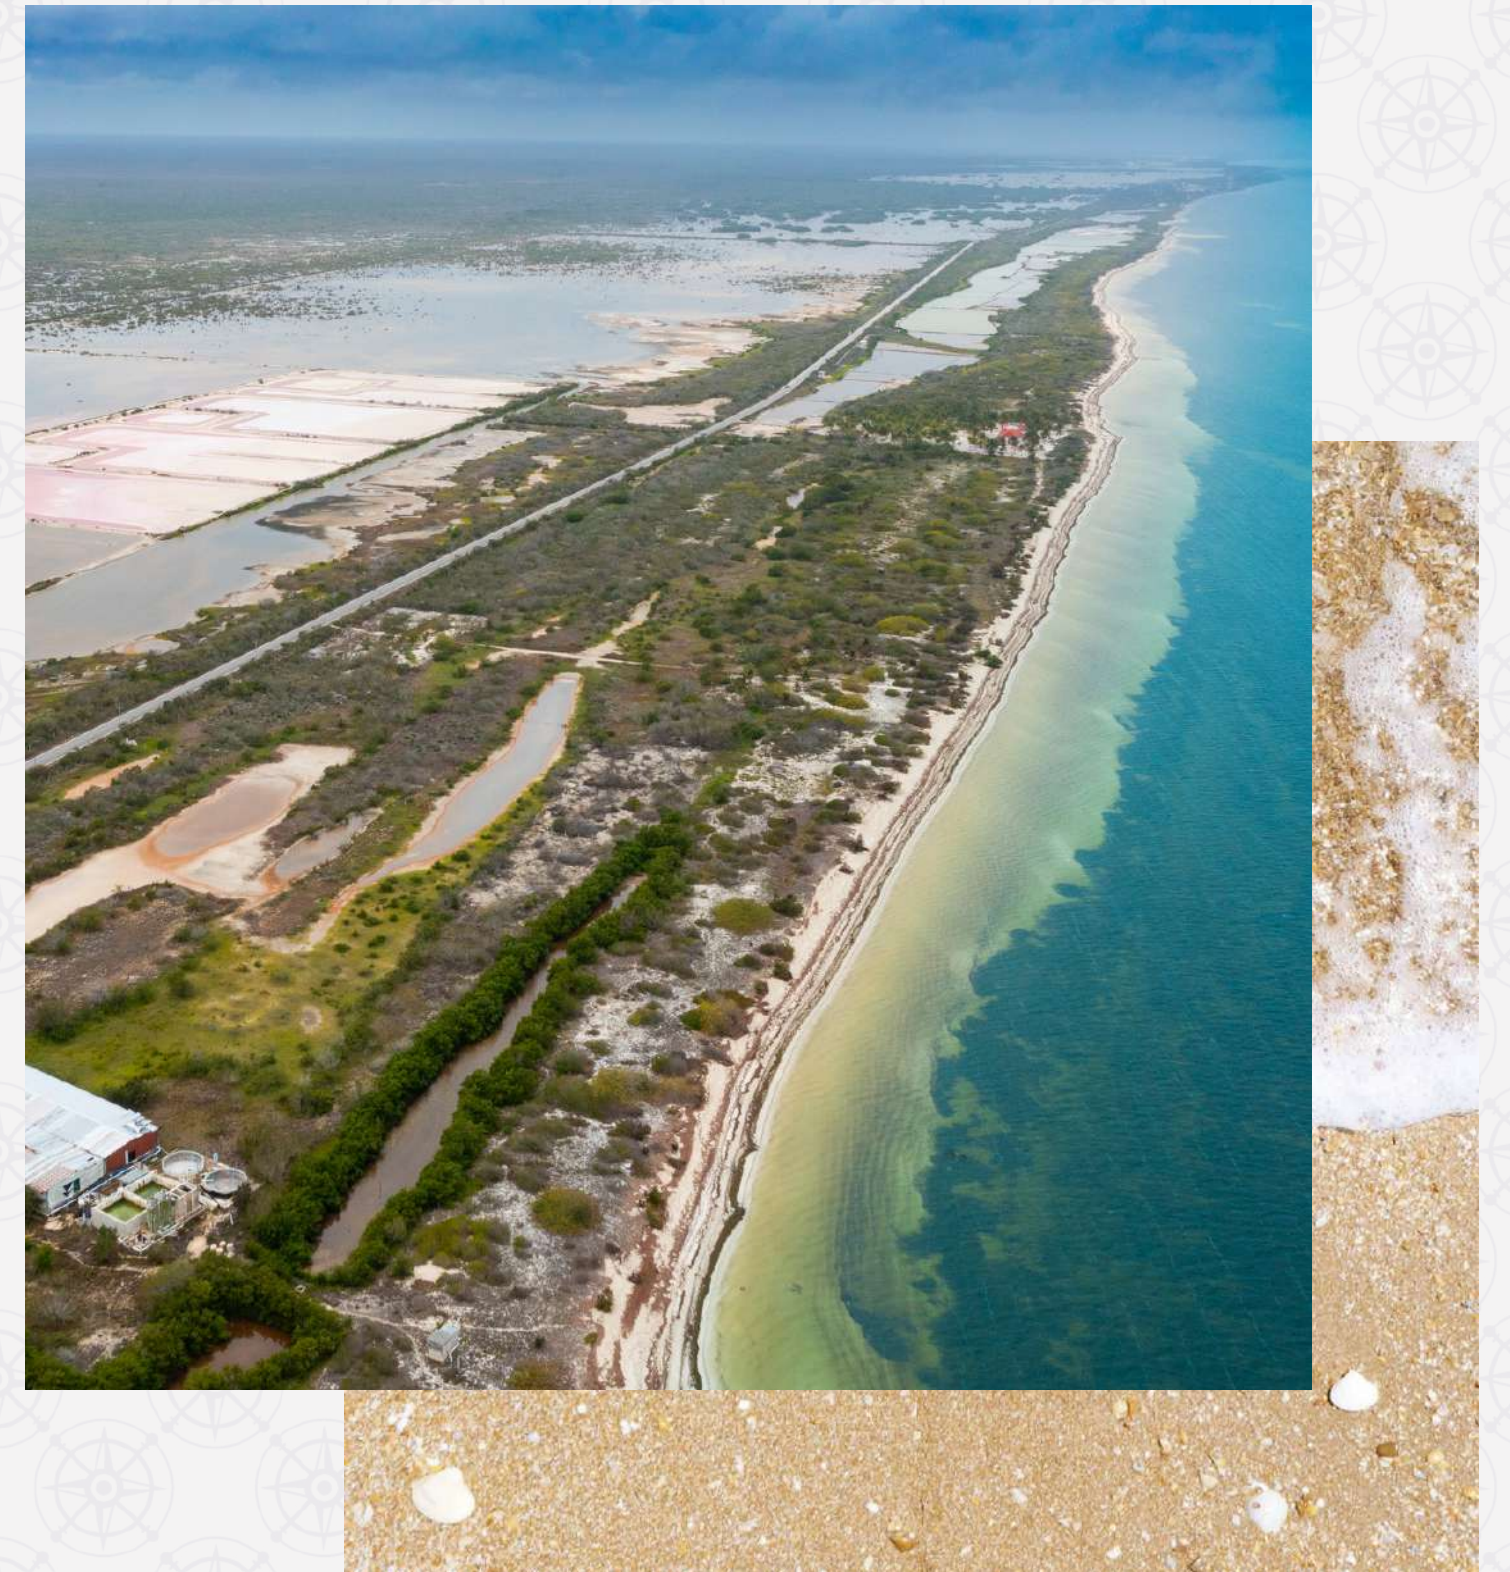

LOCATION

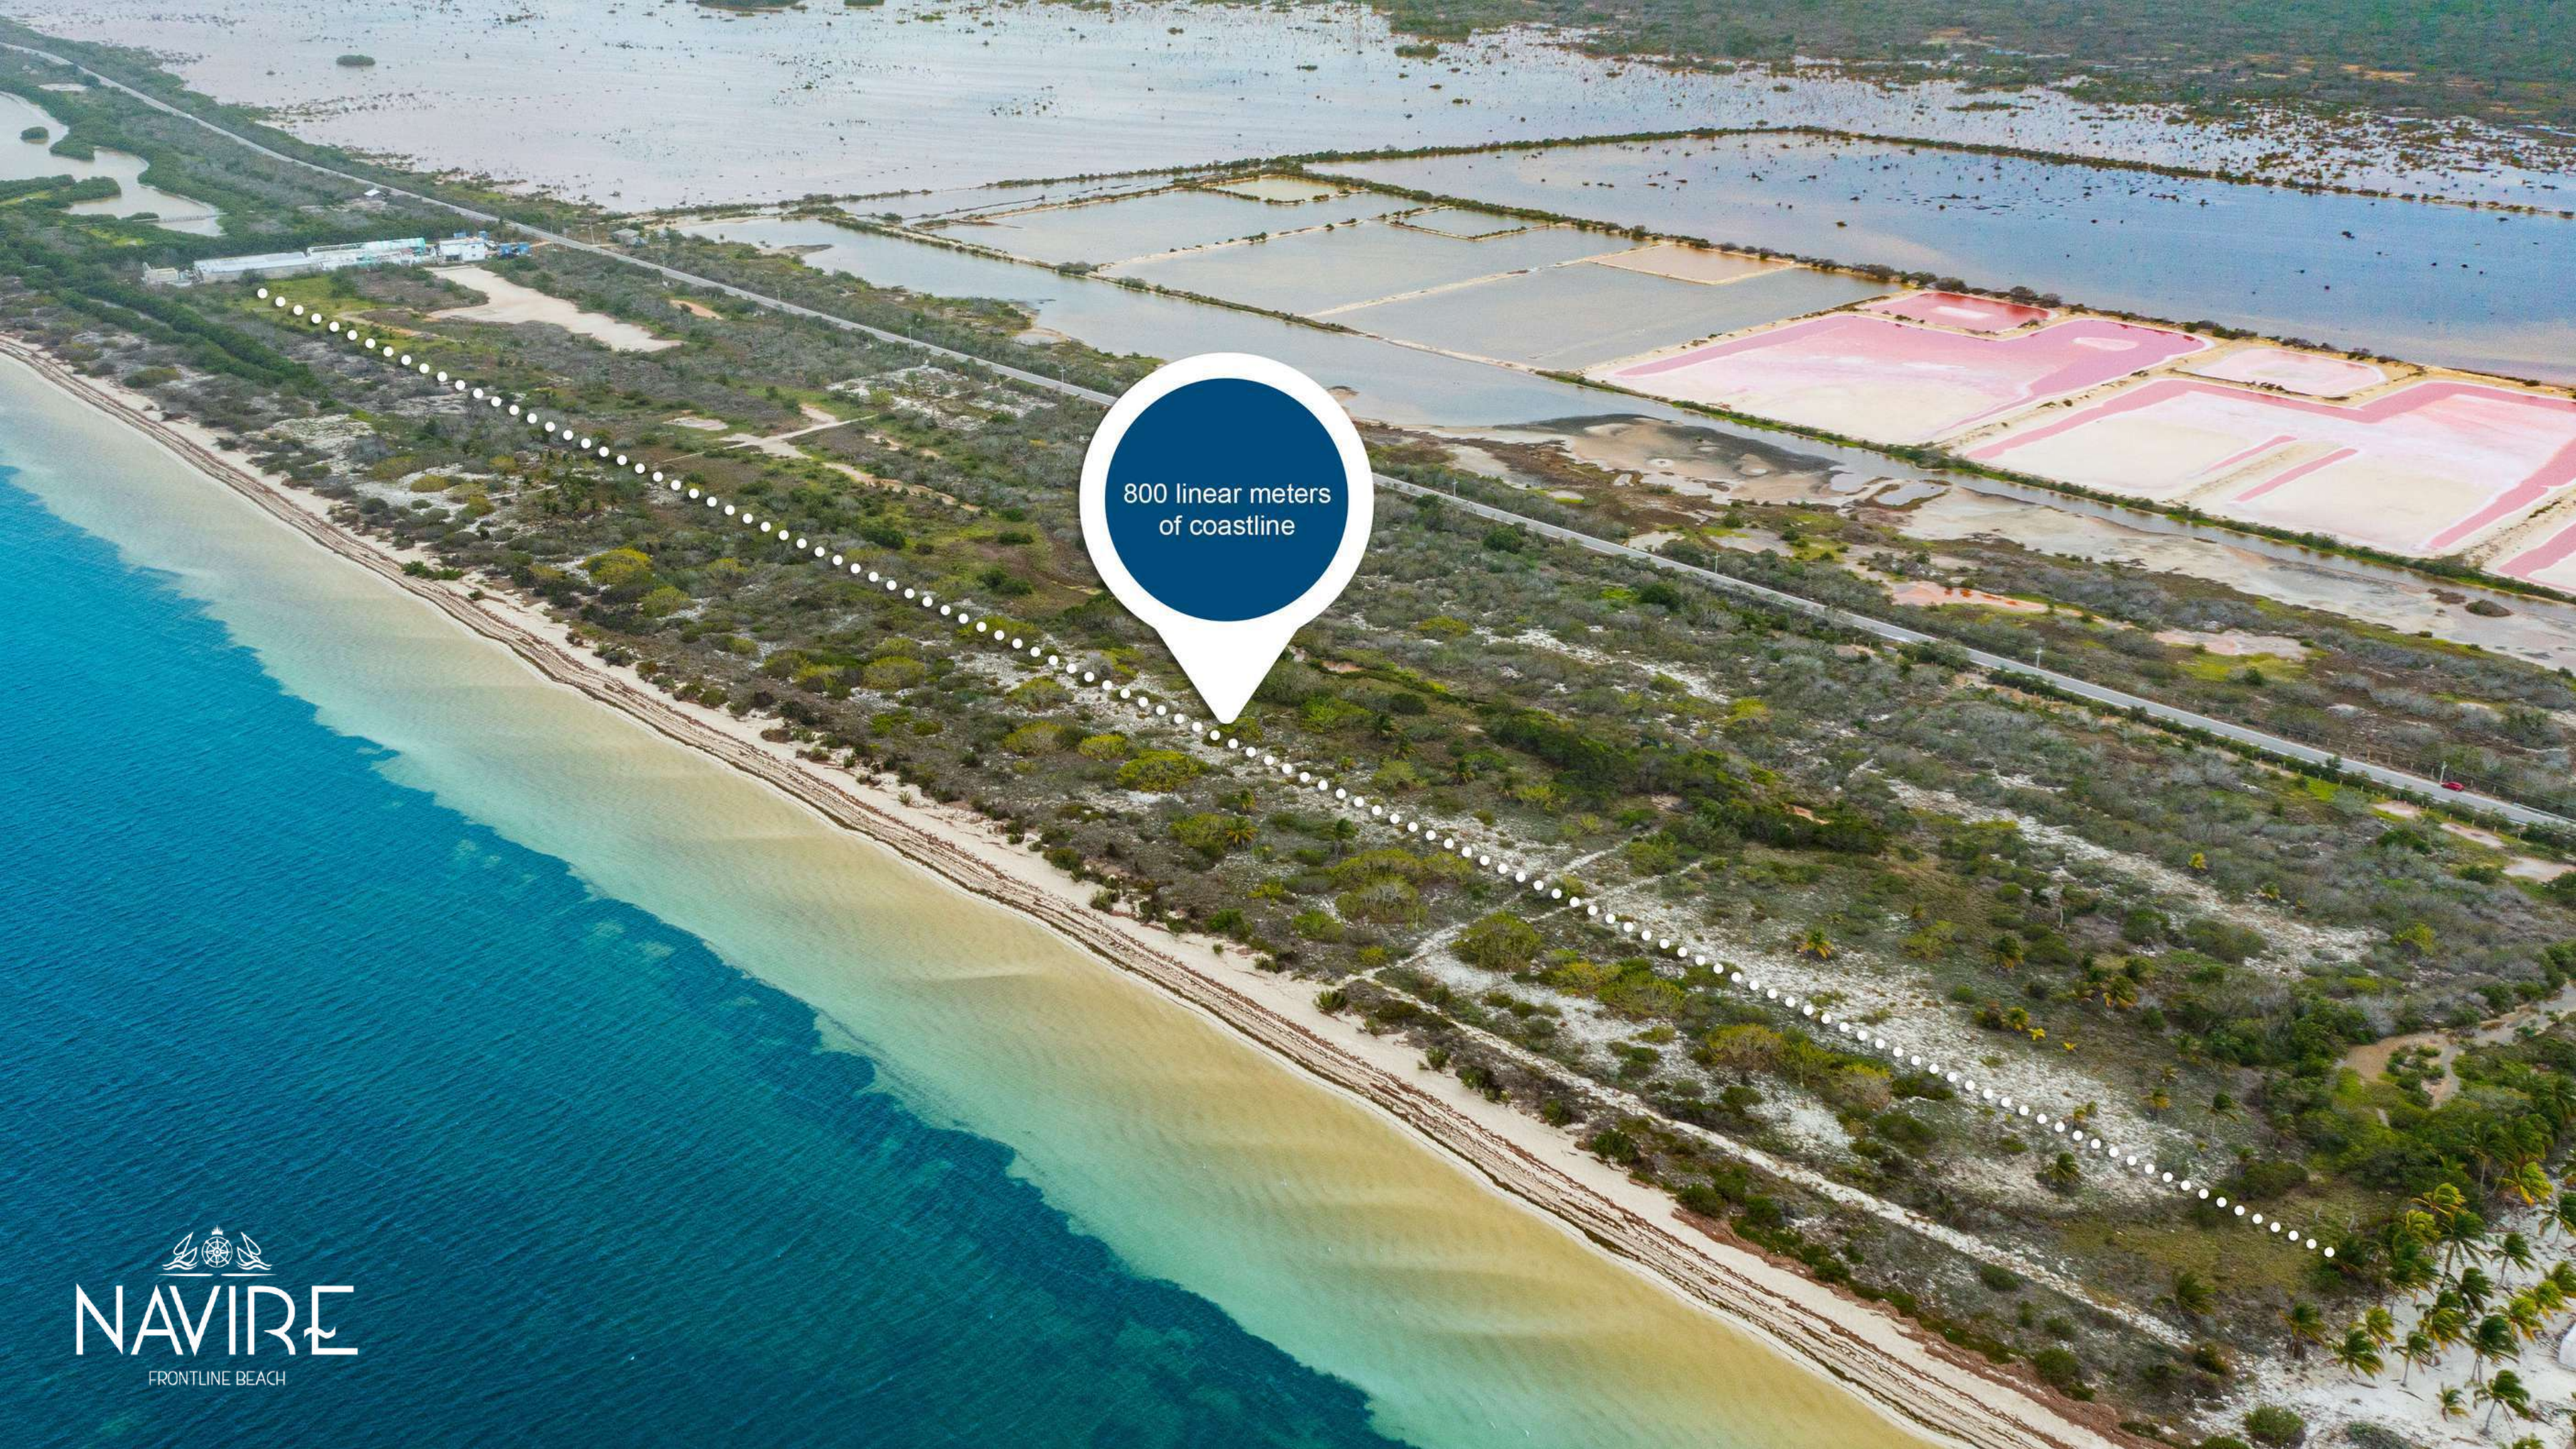

Road Santa Clara

Santa Clara is located only 50 minutes away from Merida. The port is a quiet, peaceful corner of the Yucatecan coast with a small population (under 100 people) primarily dedicated to fishing. Santa Clara Port is widely known for its serene beaches and natural atmosphere.

It is one of the last truly peaceful beaches in the area, and although its popularity attracts a few local tourists on weekends, this does not yet translate into high traffic. However, it is important to note that Santa Clara has everything needed to become the next major tourist boom in the region.
